

Oliver Frese

Member of the Managing Board,
Deutsche Messe AG

Born: 4 September 1967, Hannover

Married, two children

Oliver Frese has been a member of the Managing Board of Deutsche Messe AG based in Hannover, Germany, since 1 May 2013. He is responsible for the business divisions ICT & Digital Business-Events, Technical Services and Services. Frese oversees the subsidiaries Fachausstellungen Heckmann GmbH, spring Messe Management GmbH, Messe Gastronomie Hannover GmbH, and the holding company Gesellschaft für Verkehrsförderung GmbH.

Frese started his working career in 1995 as an assistant to the executive management at Richard Kühn/Perfekta Dienstleistungen GmbH, Burgwedel. In 1997 he moved to DeTE Immobilien und Service GmbH, a Hannover-based subsidiary of Deutsche Telekom AG, where he was appointed head of marketing and back-office sales in 1998. From there, in 2000, he joined the energy supply company EnBW, where he was head of marketing at the company's offices in Hannover and Stuttgart. In 2004, Frese commenced employment with Deutsche Messe AG in Hannover, where, as a project manager, he played a major part in the growth and development of the Energy trade show at HANNOVER MESSE, Deutsche Messe's flagship trade fair for industrial technology. This led in June 2006 to his appointment as Head of Department with responsibility for growing and enhancing all of HANNOVER MESSE's energy-themed trade shows. In 2010, he was named Senior Vice President HANNOVER MESSE, in which capacity he bore overall responsibility for the whole of HANNOVER MESSE and its strategic development. Frese was appointed to the Managing Board of Deutsche Messe in May of 2013.

With 2017 revenue projected to total about 357 million euros, Deutsche Messe ranks among Germany's top five tradeshow producers. In 2016, Deutsche Messe planned and staged 129 trade fairs and congresses around the world – events which hosted a total of about 40,000 exhibitors and some 3.6 million visitors. The company's event portfolio includes such world-leading events as CEBIT (Business Festival for Innovation and digitization), HANNOVER MESSE (industrial technology), LABVOLUTION (lab technology), CeMAT (intralogistics and supply chain management), didacta (education), DOMOTEX (carpets and floor coverings), INTERSCHUTZ (fire prevention, disaster relief and safety & security), and LIGNA (woodworking, wood processing, forestry). With approx. 1,200 employees and a network of 58 sales partners, representatives and branch offices, Deutsche Messe is present in about 100 countries.

Oliver Frese represents Deutsche Messe AG's interests at the shareholder meetings of its wholly-owned subsidiaries spring Messe Management GmbH (Mannheim) and Messe Gastronomie GmbH (Hannover) and at the shareholder meetings of the holding company Gesellschaft für Verkehrsförderung mbH (Hannover). He is also a member of the Executive Board of the Vodafone business customers' representative body Vodafone Enterprise Plenum e.V. (Düsseldorf).
