

Spherical plain bearings and rod ends

Hunger Maschinen GmbH completes every cylinder program with standard and custom-fit spherical plain bearings and rod ends of various series and types in sizes between 20 and 1000 mm bore diameter. There is a special series for hydraulic steel engineering which has been adapted to the special requirements and operating conditions. Axial spherical plain bearings are also supplied.

Cylinder with spherical bearing and Rod end

Examples from the Product range spherical plain bearings and rod ends