Business Development

EKONID supports Indonesian and German companies in market entry and business expansion strategies and in identifying potential business partners and opportunities.

While the Indonesian market offers vast potential for growth, it also poses challenges, such as an unfamiliar business environment, cultural barriers and difficulties in obtaining reliable information.

EKONID smooths market entry by offering a range of solutions:

- Market Information
- Delegations & Conferences
- Business Partner Search
- Individual Market Studies
- Address Verification
- Company Profile

Publication

Effective communication is essential for corporate success. Behind the professional look of EKONID's communication materials is a team of dedicated individuals who are passionate about helping entrepreneurs grow their businesses through creative design, while producing writing that is informative and inspiring.

We produce:

- Electronic and video media such as websites, documentaries, filler footage, profiles and presentations
- Print publications: magazines, booklets, catalogues, reports, including The AHK Indonesia in-house magazine SOROTAN
- Photography: products, team profiles, people profiles, retrospectives
