

Transfernetz Rheinland-Pfalz

Access to the universities of Rhineland-Palatinate for businesses of all kinds

The “Transfernetz Rheinland-Pfalz” is the network of knowledge and technology transfer offices from the eleven state universities of Rhineland-Palatinate. We are at the economy’s disposal concerning questions on the numerous possibilities of cooperation between universities and enterprises. As your partner in the innovation processes, we are opening the gates in the world of science in Rhineland-Palatinate. With us you

- obtain information on the latest scientific results and get access to a modern science infrastructure
- find cooperation partners for joint research and development projects
- get in touch with graduates
- gain detailed information on intellectual property rights as well as market and competition
