

SPAZIO3D is a three-dimensional CAD and CAD-CAM for furnishing available in 25 versions composed of many software modules for designers, architects, furniture retailers, joineries, industries etc. to obtain a personalized configuration suitable for every budget. SPAZIO3D has a rich library with over 10.000 elements that can be modified. It also have 3D standard and advanced functions enabling the user to create his/her own furniture. It manages import/export by DAE, DXF, 3DS, WRL, STL. It allows elaborations with "free hand" and photorealistic effects, quotations, exploded views, cutting lists, bills of materials, production reports, technical cards, nesting of the panels, edging and veneering lists, to manage CNC machines by ISO file and much more. SPAZIO3D communicates with other softwares by importing and exporting created documents: drawings, data and other elaborations which can be obtained in order to help a complete integration inside company information system.